Why Revelation and Why Now?

The most important book for today's generation to read and understand is the last book of the Bible—the book of Revelation. We live in a world that is rapidly changing. Political unrest. Mounting debt and financial instability. Random natural disasters. Societal confusion over right and wrong. But it will not go on like this forever. Bible prophecy not only predicted our current chaos, but it also explains how Jesus Christ will return to this world after clearly predicted events take place. Attend Prophecies of Hope and discover your future!

Can We Understand Revelation?

The book of Revelation, written about 2,000 years ago, is filled with cryptic language that many believe is impossible to understand. Symbols like beasts and dragons leave people confused or fearful, but are there keys to unlock these challenging passages? Yes, there are!

It would be a glaring contradiction to write a book called "Revelation" if it could never be understood! It is not only possible, but vitally important that we unlock the message God intends for us in the book of Revelation. Revelation 1:3 says, "Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written in it; for the time is near." God not only wants us to understand Revelation, but He waits to bless us when we do.

Interpreting Bible Prophecy

To properly understand prophecy, we must follow this Bible rule for correct interpretations—"Knowing this first, no prophecy of Scripture is of any private interpretation, for prophecy never came by the will of man, but holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit" (2 Peter 1:20, 21).

We are not to create private interpretations. This is why Prophecies of Hope will not tell you what to believe. You will form your own beliefs through personal study, prayer, and the Spirit's leading.

You will also learn how prophecy is written in symbols the Bible explains. For example, Revelation 13 describes two powerful beasts who dramatically influence world affairs. By looking to Revelation's companion book, we learn that beasts in prophecy symbolize nations and kingdoms (Daniel 7:17, 23). At Prophecies of Hope you will discover other Bible keys to interpretation that will allow you to clearly identify these two world powers that are soon to unleash their dangerous agenda on planet earth!

Topics like the antichrist, the mark of the beast, Armageddon, and the rapture all become clear and understandable when Revelation's symbols are identified. At the Prophecies of Hope seminar, you will find answers for these exciting topics and many more. Rather than cause fear or anxiety, you will find that understanding Bible prophecy gives hope and peace for our future. And it gives overwhelming evidence that the Bible reveals the secrets of the past, present, and future.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ

The book of Revelation begins with the words, "The Revelation of Jesus Christ" (Revelation 1:1).

Jesus is presented in Revelation 1 as a priest giving messages of warning and encouragement to His people. In Revelation 5, Jesus is the slain Lamb that gave His life for the world and now holds earth's destiny in His hands. Jesus is the conquering King seated on a white horse in Revelation 19. And finally, it is Jesus in Revelation 21 who will wipe every tear from our eyes, declaring the end of suffering and death.

Any interpretation of Bible prophecy that puts timelines and events above the understanding of Christ as our Savior and soon coming King is missing the mark. The book of Revelation is not only the revelation of end-time events but "The Revelation of Jesus Christ." With Jesus as the focus, we discover a beautiful hope and the certainty of Christ's care for us through the final hours of earth's history.

Revelation is Personal

Revelation 1:7 says, "Behold, He is coming with clouds, and every eye will see Him." Every eye includes yours. Jesus is not coming back just for others. He is coming back for you. And in the book of Revelation, Jesus reveals the future so that you will be prepared for His return. Revelation has a message for you—whether a life-long believer, adventurous young person, or determined skeptic. Don't miss this opportunity to discover, study, and understand the message of Revelation!

Pre-Register Today for Prophecies of Hope

Prophecies of Hope begins April 11 at multiple locations in your area. At www.HopeInProphecy.org you can find the location nearest you, learn the schedule of dates and presentations, and even take a Revelation quiz to test your knowledge! This seminar series is open to the community at no cost. Most seminar sites offer free study materials, refreshments, and a program for children. You will be especially blessed by the Bible-based, multimedia presentations. Over and over again, those who attend say, "I never thought I could understand Revelation, but this makes so much sense!" "I've learned more about the Bible in the last few weeks than I have in my whole life." At this seminar you will learn about important topics such as:

- How does the Bible say the world will end?
- What role does the USA play in Bible prophecy?
- What is the truth about the rapture?
- Who is the antichrist and what is the mark of the beast?

- What really happens after death?
- Are heaven and hell real and what will they be like?
- How can I find peace and be sure of eternal life?
